	c)	All Goods shall be packed for shipment according to DFS' reasonable instructions or, if there are no instructions, in a manner sufficient to ensure that the Goods are delivered in an undamaged condition.
	d)	DFS has the right to inspect the Goods on or after taking delivery for a period of up to 180 days following the date of delivery. DFS may reject all or any portion of Goods if it determines that such Goods are nonconforming or defective.
	e)	If DFS rejects any portion of the Goods, DFS has the right, effective upon written notice to Counterparty, to:
		(i) rescind the Goods delivered under the relevant Contract in its entirety;
		(ii) accept the Goods at a reasonably reduced Fees; or
		(iii) reject the Goods and require replacement of the rejected Goods.
	f)	Counterparty shall not deliver substituted Goods unless otherwise agreed by DFS.
	g)	If DFS requires replacement of Goods which are nonconforming, Counterparty shall, at its own costs and expenses, promptly replace the nonconforming Goods and shall bear all related expenses, including, but not limited to, transportation charges for the return of the defective Goods and the delivery of replacement Goods.
	h)	If Counterparty fails to make a timely replacement of the defective Goods, DFS may replace them with goods from a third party and charge Counterparty the cost thereof and terminate the relevant Contract for cause pursuant to Section 15 below. Any inspection or other action by DFS under this Section shall not reduce or otherwise affect Counterparty's obligations under the relevant Contract, and DFS shall have the right to conduct further inspections after Counterparty has carried out its remedial actions.
	i)	If any Goods are determined by Counterparty, DFS or any governmental agency or court to contain a defect or a quality or performance deficiency, or not be in compliance with any standard or requirement so as to make it advisable or required by any party concerned, that such Goods be reworked or recalled, Counterparty and DFS undertake to promptly communicate with each other relevant facts and to develop and implement a mutually agreeable corrective action. Nothing contained in this Section shall preclude DFS from taking any such action independently (at the expense of Counterparty) and as may be required of it under any such law or regulation. Counterparty shall pay all reasonable expenses associated with any such recall or rework unless otherwise agreed by the Parties in writing.

11. SERVICES SUPPLIED	a)	Where a Deliverable is a Service requiring Counterparty to place staff within DFS' premises:
AS A DELIVERABLE		 (i) if, in the sole and reasonable opinion of DFS, such Service is being materially under-performed b said staff, DFS may request by way of written notice, the replacement or removal of the under performing staff at the sole cost of Counterparty provided always that Counterparty shall have up to 30 days from the date of said notice, to remedy the under-performance;
		(ii) if Counterparty chooses to re-allocate a team member from the DFS team to another project Counterparty will provide DFS with 30 days' prior written notice, with no more than 1 such re allocation happening in any six months period, unless otherwise agreed by the Parties in writing and
		(iii) Counterparty agrees to coordinate staff vacations by way of 30 days' notice in advance with DFS to minimize any negative impact such vacations may have on the delivery date and timing of the Services and the Deliverables and in no event shall its staff be permitted to take in excess of s vacation days (except with the expressed written consent of DFS) in one continuous period.
	b)	Counterparty warrants the Works against defects in workmanship and materials for a period of twelve (12) months from the date that it is completed and accepted by DFS.
	c)	Where a Contract requires Counterparty to deliver Deliverables based on certain pre-agreed deliver milestones:
		(i) Counterparty accepts that any delay will severely impact DFS' operations and in such case, DFS may require Counterparty to pay as liquidated damages (and not as a penalty) an amount which i agreed by the Parties in a Contract. Such liquidated damages are in lieu of all other damages arisin from such delay.
		(ii) In the absence of pre-agreed terms on liquidated damages, any Deliverable not completed by the deliverable milestone shall be one percent (1%) of the price of the relevant Deliverable for each calendar day delay following the scheduled completion date of such Deliverable, but shall in me event exceed 10% of the total Fees payable by DFS to Counterparty under a Contract. Liquidated damages shall be assessed each calendar day until the date on which Counterparty completes such Deliverable, up to a maximum of thirty (30) calendar days. Counterparty may recoup the total amount of liquidated damages assessed against previous Deliverables if Counterparty accelerates progress towards future Deliverables (if any under the same Contract) and meets the final project completion date set out in that Contract. The Parties acknowledge and agree that such measure of liquidated damages is reasonable and proportionate to the possible disruption caused to DFS' business additional costs incurred by DFS, and other losses or damages suffered by DFS as a result of delayed delivery.
		(iii) If, at the end of the 30-day period specified above, Counterparty has not met the schedule fo completion of the Deliverable, then DFS, at no additional expense and at its option, may either
		1) immediately terminate the Contract and claim for damages; or instruct Counterparty to continue with no decrease in effort until the Deliverable is completed in accordance with the Contract and accepted by DFS or until DFS terminates the Contract.
		(iv) DFS shall have a right to set-off the amount equivalent to the liquidated damages against invoice issued by Counterparty under the Contract.
		(v) To the extent that the delays to the Deliverable were solely and directly caused by DFS, no liquidated damages shall be levied on Counterparty.
